May 2023 promises to be significant in modern history as we witness the coronation of a new King and Queen, an event which thanks to modern technology will be witnessed at close quarters by many millions around the UK and the world. This will be the first coronation to be experienced during our lifetimes by the majority of our population, the last one taking place as long ago as June 1953. The coronation weekend will witness a string of events taking place in our villages so there will be plenty of opportunities to mark the occasion – many thanks to all those involved in putting together a comprehensive range of activities, so soon after marking last year's Platinum Jubilee!

For the second successive year there is also an additional Bank Holiday to enjoy on Monday 8 May – let's hope for some reasonable weather for all three this month as we head towards the summer. In addition to the usual range of sporting events held in May, for those who enjoy it, the month also sees Liverpool hosting the Eurovision Song Contest, an event which in recent years has grown out of all proportion compared with its humble origins when we used to regularly perform well.

In terms of historical anniversaries this month, 1 May 1707 saw the Union between England and Scotland proclaimed and the launch of the first adhesive postage stamp took place on 6 May 1840. The 'Penny Black' stamp marked a revolution in postal services as it marked the introduction of a universal postage rate to any part of the country which was paid for by the sender. Prior to this postage was paid for by the receiver who could often refuse to accept mail, resulting in an extremely bureaucratic and expensive system. The days of the 'Penny Black' are long gone however with the price of a first-class stamp recently increasing to £1.10.

World Biscuit Day is on 29 May, an event which should have a higher profile as we in the UK are one of the world's largest consumers of sweet biscuits! Cadbury's patented the first chocolate covered biscuit as long ago as 1891 and the following year saw McVities launch the first Digestive biscuit. Reading based Huntley and Palmers produced the world's first biscuit tin in 1831 and by 1900 they had exported their products to 172 countries.

Finally, this month sees 'Star Wars Day' – May the Fourth be with you!

Dear Friends,

We are in the Great Fifty Days of Eastertide, the season which culminates on the day of Pentecost, which falls on 28th May this year (services at Bremhill 10am and Foxham 6pm). For many, Easter was over by the end of the bank holiday and is certainly a dim and distant memory by now.

However, the character and content of the readings and liturgy of the church services during Eastertide encourages a sense of celebratory rejoicing and are intended to help us to explore and engage more fully with the message of Easter. Most noticeable are the 'Alleluias' which, having been absent during Lent are now liberally distributed throughout each service. 'Alleluia! Christ is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia!'

Also, the paschal or Easter candle, lit on Easter Day, is lit at every service throughout the Easter season, and is placed in a prominent position, usually near the altar. After the Day of Pentecost the candle is moved to the font, and is lit for baptisms throughout the year. It is also lit for funerals and moved to stand by the coffin, to signify dying and rising with Christ.

Another visual aid which remains throughout Eastertide is the Easter Garden, with the stone rolled away and linen cloths in the tomb, the hillside with three empty crosses.

Eastertide continues with Ascension Day, which falls on 18th May this year (services at St Mary's, Calne 8am and Christ Church, Derry Hill 7.30pm) This is when we remember how Jesus commissions his disciples to continue his work and promises the gift of the Holy Spirit, before ascending to his Father in heaven. The nine days (novena) between Ascension Day and Pentecost is, for many Christians a time of prayerful waiting, in the same way that Jesus' disciples prayed together as they waited for the promised Holy Spirit to come.

And finally, the Day of Pentecost, when our fervent prayer is for a fresh outpouring of the Spirit on the Church and on all who follow Christ. Red (for the tongues of flame) is the liturgical colour for our worship. We each light our own candles from the paschal candle, as we are blessed and commissioned to dare to grow together in love, to share our riches and minister to each other, to pray for one another and 'to carry the light of Christ into the world's dark places'. The Pentecost service finishes outside the church building, signifying that we make Christ known out in the world through the power of the Holy Spirit, which is aflame within us.

I hope that the message of Easter continues to bring joy; and if that is not possible, then may you find peace and strength in midst of the challenges before you.

With my love and prayers this Eastertide,

LINDA

Coming to Church

Parochial Church Council (PCC) Guidance

We have for some months now been worshipping in church with minimal restrictions regarding Covid, with people making their own choices about wearing face coverings and/or social distancing.

When it comes to Holy Communion, guidance will be given during the service.

We continue to offer Zoom services (usually fortnightly) and of course, if you are feeling unwell or test positive for Covid please stay at home.

As ever, our Christian calling is to care for all our brothers and sisters, particularly those who are vulnerable; and there are times in our lives when every one of us (and those we have close contact with) is vulnerable. We ask that everyone continues to take extra care during our services and respects the wishes and needs of those around us so that everyone feels comfortable and safe.

The Night Sky in May

Despite the lighter skies of this month, the most prominent and brightest feature, after the Moon, remains our neighbouring planet, Venus. It will be clearly visible in the western sky all month from sunset through until midnight at the beginning of the month, a little earlier towards the end of May.

The period between 22-24 May in particular will provide opportunities to view Venus, Mars and the Moon close together, again in the western sky at around 22.00h. On 22 May, the thin crescent Moon will have Venus to its left and on the following evening at the same time the planet will be immediately below the Moon. The two stars sitting horizontally above these two are the twins Pollux and Castor. To the left of the twins Mars can be located – it is much diminished in brightness at present but its reddish tinge aids identification. If conditions do not allow for good viewing of the Red planet, on the next evening, 24 May, Mars will be immediately below the Moon with Pollux and Castor and Venus to their right. Three clear evenings to view these tableaux would be good!

Jupiter is currently lost in the pre-dawn twilight so not visible but ringed Saturn is available to view – for the early risers! At around 04.30h on 13 May, low in the Eastern sky, the planet will be just to the left of the Moon, switching to its right at the same time the following morning.

Low in the Northern sky, the constellation of Cassiopeia can be found. This is easily identified as the five constituent stars form a rough 'W' shape, though at other times it can be inverted to form an 'M'. Also in the Northern skies, the Plough (or 'Big Dipper') is readily visible, at the moment almost on its end. Following a line from the two end stars towards the horizon, Polaris will be found.

Not particularly bright, this star was an invaluable aid to mariners in days of old when navigation was difficult. It sits almost exactly above the North Pole and is virtually stationary so Earth rotates beneath it, an essential tool for navigators. Polaris is five times heavier than our Sun.

Book Club Review

Lessons in Chemistry by Bonnie Garmus

Set in 1960's American suburbia, Lessons in Chemistry is a book that constantly surprises. The central character, Elizabeth Zott, defies most of the stereotypes of her era. She's a brilliant scientist who doesn't want or need a man to define her, she doesn't understand or adhere to convention and she's determined to do things her way. Settings and scenarios such as a science lab, a tv studio and even a graveyard, are cleverly used to frame defining moments in Elizabeth's life, to reinforce societal norms and to highlight how she confounds them. The book is witty and laugh out loud and the subject matter is rich and full of interesting characters. It has the persona of a beach read but the emotional tension of a classic. Definitely worth the read.

The Sixth Vicar of Christ Church Derry Hill

Alfred Lovell Scott was the 6th Vicar of Derry Hill (1889 to 1925). A very special man who dedicated 36 years to Derry Hill and Studley and was witness to huge change.

Alfred was one of 7 children and was born in Natal South Africa in 1854. On 25th June 1889 he married Miriam Vincent at St Stephens Lewisham. He died in St Leonard's-on-Sea in 1940.

They had two children - Durrent and Miriam. Durrent joined the Canadian forces in WW2, eventually settling in British Columbia. He passed away in June 1978.

The processional cross was presented to the church in memory of Alfred.

Rev Scott's retirement presentation was made at the Old Village Hall. Many came to the presentation - the hall was full. The presentation noted that In his time in the village Rev. Scott had entered into many peoples lives on the occasion of joy and sorrow and had always been a true friend to everyone. 200 parishioners had raised £130 as a gift and presented an album with all the names of those that had donated.

At the presentation, Lord Lansdowne said "If I let myself go and passed in review the years of history in this parish and the history of the Vicars' know who occupied the Vicarage in that time I should keep you here for a long time. I remember the early days of the parish and how it was constituted by bits of geographical piecework. The new parish has thriven and I think it is largely due to the character of the people who, one after another, have been its ecclesiastical heads. I well remember Mr Fletcher, as some of you do and Mr Hitchcok who succeeded him". The presentation concluded by highlighting the example the Rev Scott had made of a consistent exemplary life and that he was leaving behind a life which meant more to the village then could at the moment be estimated. Though they regretted that he must leave they realised that he fully deserved his retirement - "it is the people who work the hardest in life that would enjoy the sweetest of retirement".

The myth about the gravestone with a circle of glass

For years the myth has been that there is a gravestone in Christ Church graveyard that contains a slice of the heart or brain of the deceased - sealed behind a circle of glass.

Well, the story is not likely to be true - the grave marks the remains of William Lansdale (Lansdall in the census record). William was born in Marylebone London in 1789. He worked most of his life as a Copy Holder (a good job - proof reading publications in the Georgian age).

He died when he was 80, had a pension, was a widower and had lived in Norley Lane since 1851. He died in 1868. He had a son and a daughter (who married an Angell). He had at least two grandsons.

And the circle of glass on his grave stone? Well, it is a representation of a round magnifying glass - the tool of William's trade as a Copy Holder. An expensive gravestone for a well thought of man.

Anti-social Behaviour

Although we attempt to monitor the social media groups within our local policing area, this does not replace the official reporting of any crimes or Anti-social Behaviour.

If you experience any crime or anti-social behaviour, please do report it to us on the 101 number, or via the online reporting form on the main Wiltshire police website.

We will always endeavour to investigate any reports of crime and anti-social behaviour to bring the person or persons responsible to justice.

Where this is not possible, any reports will always be collated to establish problem locations, crime or anti-social behaviour trends which do enable us to target patrols in the right places and the right times.

Road safety

We are continuing to monitor any collisions or incidents on the A4 and surrounding routes of Derry Hill and will look to target those locations for preventive patrols and enforcement action where possible.

On Wednesday 29th March, our roads policing officers were out in force in Chippenham and surrounding areas as part of Project Zero patrols, targeting drivers who commit any of the fatal five offences.

These include drink driving and using a mobile phone while behind the wheel of a car. 78 offences were detected in one day.

Local PCSO awarded with High Sheriff Award for 'Excellent Community Policing'

A Wiltshire Police Community Support Officer (PCSO) has been awarded a High Sheriff award for his work within the community.

Mark Cook has worked for the Force for 17 years, 11 of which have been spent in Calne.

Yesterday (27/03) Mark was surprised by the High Sheriff of Wiltshire, Lady Lansdowne at Calne police station and was presented with his award.

Lady Lansdowne, described Mark as ‘the best example of excellent community policing’.

She said: “It was lovely to give Mark his award. Born in Calne, he knows the town and surrounding villages really well and really puts that knowledge to good use. Everyone loves him and he does so much good locally.

He has been the Bowood Bobby too for many years and often takes a drive through the park to make sure Bowood is safe and I see him out and about while walking my dogs.

He always has time for a chat. He is very approachable and good with all ages and at a time when trust in the police is not as it should be, he is the best ambassador Wiltshire police could have to build relationships with the public.

It was a pleasure to surprise him with the High Sheriff award in my last week as High Sheriff. I think he thought he had been summoned to the Police Station as he had done something wrong but far from it!"

Mark was delighted to receive the award and meet Lady Lansdowne. He said: "It's really nice when your work is recognised like this, as I just do a job that I love."

PCSO Mark Cook said: "I am part of a much wider team of officers who help to police Calne. We all work together each day to keep people as safe as we can.

It was such a surprise when the High Sheriff, Lady Lansdowne arrived at Calne police station to present the award. I was completely taken back by it. It was also nice to discuss some of the work she has done and hopes to do in the future surrounding issued affecting the safety of women and girls.

I am extremely proud to be able to serve the town where I grew up and to be able to give something back every day to the community of Calne."

Sgt Mike Tripp who works with Mark said: "Mark's commitment to his role has resulted in countless positive results for the police and the community as a whole.

Mark is extremely well known and respected within the community and this award highlights the value he holds to the residents of Calne."

The Rural Crime Team are a dedicated team with specific policing priorities, these being Agriculture, Wildlife, Heritage and Equine crime. These four areas of business are the main focus of the team's engagement and proactive work however, the team are committed to tackling policing issues across all rural communities, whatever those issues may be.

The Rural Crime Team does not work alone in policing the rural communities of Wiltshire. All areas have dedicated Neighbourhood Teams, supported by response teams, investigators and support departments in the force.

The Rural Crime Team itself provides specialist skills and support to this wider pool of resources assisting with rural crime and wildlife matters. The Rural Crime Team also work closely with a number of partners.

If you wish to contact the Rural Crime Team, please email them on: rctc@wiltshire.police.uk

As with all crime, this needs to be reported on 101 or via the Wiltshire police online crime reporting form.

Closed fishing season – 15th March to 15th June 2023

The coarse fish close season is approaching (at the time of writing this update) meaning it's illegal to fish for coarse fish in rivers until 15th June inclusive.

Don't forget, there are plenty of still waters or canal coarse fisheries where you can fish.

These rules are aimed at protecting fish stocks and making fisheries sustainable. Freshwater fish include salmon, trout, coarse fish and eels

Operation EASTER

Operation Easter - 26 years of stopping egg thieves and egg collectors. The national enforcement campaign to protect our nesting wild birds is underway for 2023. Egg thieves will go to any lengths to raid the nests of rare wild birds. Operation EASTER is determined to stop them in their tracks.

The taking of wild bird eggs is a serious crime yet it remains an illicit hobby for some determined individuals.

Whole clutches of eggs can be taken from some of the UK's rarest birds with potentially devastating impacts. The eggs are stored in secret collections.

If you have any information on egg thieves, or those who disturb rare nesting birds without a license, you should contact your local police by dialling 101 - ask to speak to a wildlife crime officer if possible. Nesting will be in full swing in April so please contact Wiltshire Police if you see anyone acting suspiciously around nesting birds by reporting online. <https://crowd.in/OnFrQ2>

Information can also be passed in confidence to Crimestoppers via 0800 555 111.

Rise Up Event Held at Kingsbury Green Academy

Students from Ascend Learning Trust join in a celebration of Dance. Kingsbury Green Academy hosts the Rise Up Dance event.

Kingsbury Green Academy hosted their very first Primary and Secondary Dance Show on Wednesday 29th March. The Dance show is not a competition like other festivals and events on the annual calendar of support for schools around Calne but more of a celebration and storytelling opportunity. The show included local schools from the Kingsbury Green Sports Cluster and also schools from the Ascend Learning Trust.

The evening hosted a total of 12 Dances, which were performed to an audience of over 150 with all proceeds going to Springboard a local SEN Pre-School supporting parents with children with additional needs. The theme for the show was The Journey which felt appropriate given the last couple of years' events. Behind the scenes a huge team of technical experts, dance teachers and Young Leaders from the Power of 10 team helped to prepare the venue and work on filming, set design and sound and lighting.

The Ascend Learning Trust's Rise Up events continue throughout the year, with the next event being held at Lawn Manor Academy in June. Phil Smith School Sports Coordinator and Show Producer at Kingsbury Green Academy went on to mention "Huge thank you to all involved especially Alice Mitchell Head of Performing Arts at KGA for spending the last 4 months planning the show. A wonderful evening with a special guest appearance from a giant cuddly Mascot from Springboard. I'm already looking forward to making this an annual event and coming up with a theme for even more schools to embrace in 2024."

There was an unintentional error in last month's Heartbeat Article (below) so we have reprinted it in full. Apologies for any misunderstanding. Ed

How Does a Defibrillator Work?

As the name suggests, defibrillation stops fibrillation, the useless trembling that a person's heart muscles can adopt during a cardiac arrest. Simply speaking, a defibrillator works by using a moderately high voltage (something like 200–1000 volts) to pass an electric current through the heart so it's shocked into working normally again – at least that's the objective!

The kind of defibrillator you see on TV consists of an electric supply unit and two metal electrodes called paddles that are pressed very firmly to the patient's chest using insulating plastic handles (so the person using them doesn't get a shock too). In a hospital the doctor manually sets the voltage and usually increases it if the first attempt fails. The important thing is getting the current to flow through the heart, so where the paddles are applied is crucial. They must also make good electrical contact with the skin, so a solid or liquid conducting gel is usually applied to the patient's chest first.

Our automatic defibrillators in the village are designed to be used by untrained people and issue precise audible instructions telling the user exactly what to do and where to place the pads. They use sticky, self-adhesive electrode pads instead of paddles for safety and simplicity: once the pads are stuck on, the operator can stand well clear of the patient's body and that reduces the risk of their getting an electric shock. Our automatic units test the heart first before applying an appropriate electric shock if needed. If the patient's heart is working correctly our automatic units do not give an electric shock, so they are completely safe!

Don't have nightmares!

Jazz Club Marden House Calne

It's interesting how the club has "taken off" after the pandemic. For instance, the recent show with the wonderful Catherine Sykes was graced with an audience of 64 and it has been like that since our "come back" concert in August 2021.

So, hoping this will continue, we have another amazing concert on Tuesday 30th May with 2 top pianists playing together, designed by and featuring our most frequent performer Dave Newton with a fellow Scot Euan Stevenson.

We've heard this ensemble of TWO PIANOS and it is utterly incredible. Sweet Georgia Brown has never been given quite such a run for her money!

Tuesday 27th June will be our 18th anniversary for which there will be a hoot of a celebratory concert now being secretly devised!

No bar but bring your own refreshments, small tables provided.
Admission still only £10

Please pay at the door and do please reserve seats by email to harphammusic@hotmail.com

What's happening in 2023?

The Steering Group are working on finalising evidence base work and drafting the plan updates. We are aiming to consult on the whole draft of the updated Neighbourhood Plan in the early Autumn. Find out more on page 3 of this update.

Thinking about housing

We are undertaking an assessment of all sites that land owners have put forward to be considered as housing sites. National independent company AECOM are now assessing the individual sites to see which may be suitable for allocation for housing sites in the Neighbourhood Plan.

Running alongside this work, the Calne Community Neighbourhood Plan Steering Group commissioned a Housing Need Assessment (HNA) which helps us to understand the needs of the existing community and future residents, including, for example, affordable housing and housing for older people. See the full reports on our website (calnecommunityplan.com).

All this work will help to inform the question about if, and where, the Neighbourhood Plan should allocate a site for housing this time as it did in the first Plan. We will only allocate if there are clear benefits to doing so and there is community support.

Haven't we already got too much housing?

There has been a lot of building in Calne so it will be in some of our villages over the next 15 years, and many people will get a flat for the first time, but are we already overbuilt? In fact, it's the other way round, new people coming to live here has led to a shortage of houses in many of our villages and towns. It's not just the houses that are in short supply, but also the schools, shops and other services that are needed to support the new residents.

It's not all the houses that are in short supply though. In some of our villages, there is a shortage of houses for people who want to live in the area. This is because many of the houses are in poor condition and need to be replaced. It's also because many of the houses are too small for modern living.

Protecting Valued Local Green Space

It's not all about housing either. Through the Plan we can also protect the green spaces that are valued by the community. These are areas of land that are important to the local people and should be protected for future generations. The Plan will help us to identify these areas and make sure they are protected for the future.

What would happen if we don't have a neighbourhood plan?

There is a chance you will still have your say if you don't have a plan...

- We say on the way in to the village
- We say on the way out of the village
- We say on the way to the shops
- We say on the way to the school

Strengthening Locally Distinctive Design

The new housing, and other developments, it's not just about the houses, it's also about the way the houses are built. We want to make sure the new houses are built in a way that fits in with the existing houses in the area.

Through the Plan, we can also make sure the new houses are built in a way that fits in with the existing houses in the area. We want to make sure the new houses are built in a way that fits in with the existing houses in the area.

Through the Plan, we can also make sure the new houses are built in a way that fits in with the existing houses in the area. We want to make sure the new houses are built in a way that fits in with the existing houses in the area.

What would our children like to see the Calne Area look like in the future?

Young people are some of our strongest advocates for addressing climate change and their view of the future can help us take a new look at the opportunities open to us.

The review of the Calne Community Neighbourhood Plan will help guide development in the area for the next 10 to 15 years and we'd like to know what our young people think should happen.

We have questionnaires designed for both primary and secondary school pupils, these will be offered to the schools within the plan area, but we know that many children living in our area attend the secondary schools in Chippenham and the primary schools at Cherhill, Heddington and Hilmarton so might be missed. Please give them the chance to be involved, go to the calnecommunityplan.com website today and follow the link.

Mothers' Union Prayer & Fellowship Group

It was lovely to welcome everyone to our meeting on Wed 5th April and so nice to welcome Diedre back with us again. Our opening prayers and reading were done by Jean followed by discussions about the DH&S Coronation Programme and our summer outing which we are all looking forward to in July. We then had great fun with our beetle drive, kindly organised by Robyn who also provided prizes for the winners. We then enjoyed refreshments which included home-made Easter biscuits made and served by Nan and Christine W.

Our next meeting is on Wed 3rd May at 2pm in Christ Church when we will be marking the Coronation of King Charles III the following Saturday. Everyone is doing their best to write a poem, of any type, or a prayer relevant to the occasion and our refreshments will consist of home-made cake provided by Judi and Christine W. We will be bringing our own cups and saucers, just to make it a little more special, although the tea does taste nice in those mugs – or maybe that's just who makes it!! Everyone who wishes to join us will be most welcome.

Jane Clark Childminding supports the Great British Spring Clean

The natural environment and its wildlife is very important to us at Jane Clark Childminding and so we were delighted to learn of the Great British Spring Clean (17th March - 2nd April 2023).

We approached Calne Without Parish Council and asked if they could help us get involved in the campaign safely by purchasing children's litter picking kits. We were thrilled to hear that the idea was fully supported and are very grateful to the Parish Council for their financial contribution.

We organised two litter picking events and were excited to wear the hi viz jackets and gloves and use the pickers and special rings to secure the bin bags to make them easier to use. We made sure that we were equipped for the wet weather too! On our travels walking around the village we unfortunately found lots of litter including plastic bags, straws, plastic bottles, hot drink lids, drink cans, discarded bus tickets, plastic sweet and chocolate wrappers, foil and pipe cleaners.

We were sad to find a great deal of litter in the Chapel Street area but happy that Petty Acre (The Green) was very clean.

We have been busy learning about why it is important not to litter and how to protect our natural world by reducing, re-using and recycling our waste through activities such as junk modelling, sorting and storytelling. We are looking forward to future litter picking opportunities and urge other groups and individuals in the Parish to get involved by contacting the Parish Council to hire equipment as we did, so that together we can make a difference in keeping our local community clean and safe for all.

The Coronation of King Charles III

The plans for how our community will celebrate the forthcoming coronation are now well advanced and ready to be launched on an unsuspecting citizenry. In summary, it looks like this – all timings are subject to change as today we have little knowledge of the actual timings of the Coronation activities.

Sat 6th May

- Assembly at the Hall for an unveiling and associated proclamations
- Coronation Breakfast at the Hall
- Community screening of the Coronation
- Single Wicket Cricket Match on Petty Acre
- Barn Dance

Sun 7th May

- Church service in celebration of the Coronation
- Charles' Commonwealth Conundrum
- The BIG Coronation Lunch on Bowood front lawn
- Event at the Lansdowne Arms

Mon 8th May

- Volunteering with refreshments
- Charles' Commonwealth Conundrum
- Local street parties

Our plea today is for you to consider whether you wish to be involved in some of these activities and let us know – see below.

The Single Wicket Cricket competition is intended to be a light-hearted yet traditional event. For those of you living around Petty Acre this will be with a soft ball! So, will you participate? Let me know at the above email. If you have essential cricket gear you are prepared to loan, we would be delighted to hear from you (bats, stumps, wickets). All members of the community are cordially invited to come and watch. Perhaps bring a deckchair and some light refreshments with you? The Fete Committee will lay on a bar-tent.

Charles' Commonwealth Conundrum invites you as residents or groups to prepare and place a tableau in a prominent place such as your front lawn or playground. King Charles is unsure which countries form the Commonwealth today and wants your help. So, a bit like the Jubilee scarecrows, will you prepare a display or scene that allows one to guess the Commonwealth Country? If you are prepared to do this please just email us and we will create a list and a trail for people to follow the scarecrow trail. If that isn't clear enough, email us with your questions.

The BIG Coronation Lunch We are again privileged to be able to hold our BIG Lunch on the front lawn at Bowood House. While more details will follow, we would ask you now please to register your interest – even though you may have already done so once. This is the official registration period when we need to understand how many of you wish to attend. We will again be producing wrist bands which must be collected and worn throughout the day as this will gain you access into the House & Gardens grounds until 17:00 when they close.

The Barn Dance Tickets will go on sale for this event in due course. Please keep an eye on all social media channels and The Hub at www.derryhillandstudley.org.

Volunteering King Charles has asked for the 8th May to be a volunteering day. We have a number of activities requiring your help for a couple of hours on Monday 8th morning. Like the Jubilee Tidy Up, there will be refreshments served at the hall on completion. Please let us know if you can spare the time.

Local Street Parties If all that isn't enough for you then we suggest you could round off the celebrations with your own local street party. Go ahead and organise that amongst yourselves. Chapel Street – Looking for a leader to sort that please!!!!

So, please complete the table below and send it in to me at peterprater@btinternet.com or post it through my door at 5 Chapel Street asap. Further details of each event will follow in due course. If you can't copy me the table, just send me the key information via email.

Can you still be you with dementia?

By 2025, more than one million people in the UK will have dementia. For Dementia Action Week (15-21 May), we reflect on a common worry for people when they first learn they have dementia: that they will lose the essence of who they are.

We see this with some of our residents and their families. While the concern is perfectly understandable, it's important to remember that dementia is something you have, not something you are. Even though the person may struggle with memory or concentration, or show unusual behaviours, they are still themselves.

Life and care after a dementia diagnosis

While everyone experiences dementia differently, the right support and focusing on the things you can do and enjoy can help you feel positive and well.

- First, stay stimulated. Many care settings provide activities specially designed for residents with dementia. If you are not in care, support groups can provide stimulation, as well as comfort and a sense of community.
- Keep your diet and lifestyle in check. Drinking enough fluid, and eating good mix of vegetables, whole grains, low-fat dairy and lean protein is a good start. Daily exercise (which may include gardening or house chores) keeps the blood flowing – which supports cognition – and increases key chemicals that protect the brain.
- Monitor your mood. Depression can be common among people living with dementia. Remaining social and stimulated can help keep it at bay and speak to a professional if you are worried.

Living with dementia, or supporting someone with it, is a unique journey. The charity Alzheimer's Society has great resources, and Wiltshire charity Alzheimer's Support is great for groups, activities and more. And, if you ever want to explore what care may look like for yourself or someone you love living with dementia, get in touch with us at Kingston House in Calne for a no-obligation chat or visit on 01249 471 516.

The fete committee is busy planning another fun filled family day out and all the usual favourite activities, stalls, arena acts, fun and games will be held again this year. We are currently working on ideas of a theme around a 'Celebration of Wiltshire', so please look out for further information around that in terms of the Arts and Crafts competitions over the next few weeks. We look forward to seeing you all there again this year!

Any questions in the meantime, or if you would like to get involved in the fete with a stall, or join the fete team, then please let me know. It would be great to have you on board.

Distribution of Fete Funds from 2021 & 2022 Fetes:

The fete committee is also in the process of distributing £2,250 to 14 local community groups. We are distributing the money raised in response to funding requests from the local community groups.

Some examples of how the money will be used are as follows;
Support the Rub-a-Dubs playgroup, Provision of vital equipment for on-going maintenance to the Heartbeat Defibrillator Charity, Support to the Derry Hill School library project. Provision of funding to support the: Scouts, Brownies, Derry Hill Youth Club, Derry Hill United Football Club, Women's Institute, the InSPIRE Magazine; and the Lansdowne Hall.

The Fete Committee is proud to be able to support the community groups in such a way and we couldn't do it without all your help and support. So, thank you to all of you who attend and get involved in the fete.

We can't wait to do it all again this year. Let's hope for another nice sunny day on 8th July!

All the best, Tom Metcalfe – Chair – Derry Hill and Studley Village Fete Committee. 07841 131623 Tom_metcalf@sky.com

Derry Hill and District W.I.

Easter holidays have come and gone so we are now back to WI meetings and events. Our March Annual Meeting went well. We have a new committee member – Margaret Bell. Margaret will be a great addition to the team, we are very lucky! We also thanked two long standing members of the committee who have stood down this year. Both Jackie and Tina were presented with plants for their gardens. Sally thanked them both for all their hard work over many years.

Barbara asked us to help knit hats for a friend's charity, so our members have been busy knitting 'Hats for the children of Nepal' These will be sent to the organisers who will then ship them out. We counted 65 hats – well done ladies!

We are looking forward to hearing David Dawson, Director of the Wiltshire Museum in Devizes, talking about Devizes' Castle at our meeting on 26th April. Our local history is always very interesting and David brings this to life.

Sally hosted an afternoon tea on 27th April. This was a double celebration, a 90th Birthday and, while we were all together, a toast for King Charles wishing him well for his Coronation.

The May speaker is Nick King who will talk about 'The History and What Goats Milk is Used For'.

We meet on the 4th Wednesday of the month at the Lansdowne Hall, 7.30pm. Why not come along and give it a try.

Wellbeing notes

The patina of a person

There's an upcoming auction in the neighbourhood on 11th May: The Fine Contents of a Wiltshire Property. I may attend because there's a similar scene I'm working on in the novel that I'm currently writing. It'll be useful research.

There's something about antique objects that is innately pleasing, despite or maybe because of, the way they've changed over time. Consider my great grandmother's sewing box, pictured here. Maybe one day the parquetry lid will be restored, but even so, it will never again look new. Its surfaces reveal the passage of time –

there are no short cuts when it comes to creating an aged surface, or patina.

And so it is with people. We all age differently, and we all face different choices when it comes to the process of time. Do we apply skincare creams, including sun block, daily; do we opt for more drastic intervention? How do we react to the arrival of white hair? And do we keep our bodies flexible through exercise?

We each find our own answers to these questions. However, the icon of older beauty for me will always be the white-haired woman (or man), with serene and cared-for features, who accepts and embraces her true age. She has learned the art of self-acceptance, and to love life fully. That is truly something to aspire to.
