

MAJOR CHANGES ARE COMING TO YOUR LOCAL COUNCILS IN MAY 2025

WHAT IS HAPPENING?

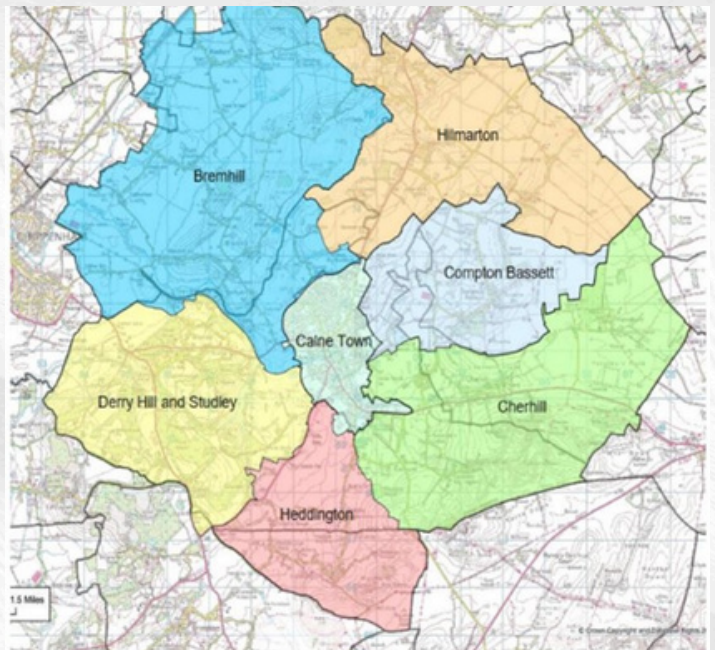

Following a Governance review by Wiltshire Council all parish councils in the Calne area and the town council itself will see significant boundary changes that will mean many residents will find themselves in different councils in May 2025.

WHO DOES THIS AFFECT?

All six parish councils surrounding Calne Town Council will be affected by the boundary changes. The parish councils involved are Calne Without, Bremhill, Hilmarton, Compton Bassett, Cherhill and Heddington. Despite the name 'Parish Council', these councils have no religious connections.

IN MAY 2025 CALNE WITHOUT PARISH COUNCIL WILL CEASE TO EXIST AND YOU WILL BE LIVING IN THE NEW CIVIL PARISH OF DERRY HILL AND STUDLEY.

WHAT WILL THE NEW PARISH LOOK LIKE?

The parish will be divided into three wards.

- Pewsham ward which covers Pewsham, Old Derry Hill, Devizes Road and Naish Hill, which will be represented by one councillor.
- Sandy Lane and Bowood ward, which will be represented by one councillor.
- Derry Hill and Studley ward, which will be represented by nine councillors.
